Mourjan Marinas IGY reveals new brand identity as it takes on the vibrant marina industry in the Middle East

Dubai, 07 December 2009: Mourjan Marinas IGY, the luxury developer and manager of marinas and yachting lifestyle destinations, has today revealed a new brand identity which will take the company forward at the forefront of the marina industry in the Middle East. This new company is the result of the strategic partnership announced last month between Island Global Yachting (IGY) and the Malta based corporation, G-Marin. Operating under the new name, Mourjan Marinas IGY, the company will build on the strong success and professional management of IGY in the region and will focus on a growth strategy.

The new brand identity designed by 'NATIVE' incorporates a bold and confident design through colour and strong graphics. The logo symbolises the core values of strength and reliability which will guide the company in the future and also conveys the idea of working in harmony with both worlds above and below the sea. Mourjan, meaning 'Coral' in Arabic, was chosen as part of the company's new name to reflect the importance of the marine environment and to signify Mourjan Marinas IGY's specific commitment to the GCC and North Africa.

Michael Horrigan, CEO of Mourjan Marinas IGY comments:

"We are delighted to reveal our new brand identity which represents the values on which the new organisation, Mourjan Marinas IGY, is built upon. Whilst maintaining a strong relationship with IGY and our parent company G- Marin, we are set for a prolific future as a leading marina industry developer and operator. Our new brand identity is reflective of our enthusiasm and positive energy for the future and the bold, confident way in which we will do business."
