

5-day Itinerary

Day 1: Start your trip off right with a fishing charter to enjoy some of the best big catch fishing offered anywhere. Take in some lunch when you get back to shore and then head over to relax on Playa Plamilla where you can soak up some rays or partake in some water sports. Head back to marina grab some dinner and drinks at one of the restaurants

Day 2: Take in some of the local cuisine by heading to the as Animas Bajas Area and if you get over there on a Saturday the you can experience the San José Mercado Organico, the organic farmer's market. There are a few farm-to-table restaurants that you can try. Then check out San José del Cabo's Historic Art District where you can admire the architecture, art galleries and town plaza.

Day 3: Take a boat ride tour over to the Arch of Cabo San Lucas. The tours not only take you to see the amazing arch but also to enjoy Lover's Beach, some snorkeling, paddle boarding or other ways to get in the water. Spend the late afternoon doing some shopping, trying some local cuisine and maybe even taste some local tequila.

Day 4: Spend the earlier part of the day doing some shopping at Puerto Paraiso Mall where you can check out Luxury Avenue, buy some souvenirs, and try one of the great restaurants. Then afterwards take one of the sunset cruises. After a leisurely day have a great bite to eat at one of the restaurants at the marina

Day 5: Spend the day at Flora farm where you can take cooking and painting classes, experience an organic spa treatment and seeing what it is like to eat at a true farm-to-table restaurant with everything grown on the 25-acre property or nearby at their 150-acre ranch.

