

LOCAL ATTRACTIONS

Take a peek at some great sites to visit around Santa Marta!

TAIRONA GOLD MUSEUM

This extraordinary collection, an exhibition that puts in context the cultural heritage and a beautiful restored colonial house invite you to explore the past and present of Santa Marta, the department of Magdalena and the Sierra Nevada de Santa Marta.

CATHEDRAL OF BASILICA OF SANTA MARTA

The Cathedral Basilica of Santa Marta is considered one of the jewels of American architecture. It is the oldest of the churches in South America and is an important landmark of Christianity.

EL RODADERO BEACH

It is the favorite tourist place for visitors of Santa Marta. It is located ten minutes from the city around Gaira Bay, formed by a hotel and housing strip, which gathers cozy white sand beaches and a quiet sea ideal for water sports: sailing, underwater fishing, skiing and others.

LA CIUDAD PERDIDA

This region of Colombia represents a microcosm of the world itself. See the surroundings in a larger map a You will find a desert in the Guajira, interesting rock formations and beautiful beaches in the Tayrona National Park and maybe have the opportunity to contemplate almost six thousand meters in the peaks that make up the Sierra Nevada.

