

September 29, 2024

Due to the recent events and the damage caused by Hurricane Helene, we are unable to process your slip rent and monthly electric payments with our credit card system for the unforeseeable future and those payments must now be paid via check. The customers that have set up an automatic or recurring bill pay through their financial institutions should process normally. We apologize for any inconvenience that this may cause.

Maximo Management Team